

ME Construction Ltd

UCL MEDICAL SCIENCES BUILDING QUEENS SQUARE, LONDON WC1

Contract Details

Value: £200k

Architect: Day England Stevensen Marsh

Client: University College London

The project involved the renovation of a staircase in the Medical Sciences Building within the University College London.

Works involved moving all existing services, new ceilings, floors, doors and casings, and redecoration throughout. The project was carried out whilst the building remained fully operational.